

PROCLAMATION – GOOD NEIGHBOUR MONTH

May 2026

WHEREAS, as a community, we are committed to supporting our neighbours, welcoming people, and creating connections. It is a time to celebrate and invite individuals, families, and communities who reflect on the importance of being a good neighbour to one another.

WHEREAS, we recognize the qualities of friendliness, respect and considerations are essential to building a supportive and thriving community.

WHEREAS, Good Neighbour Month encourages individuals to engage in acts of kindness, offer assistance, and lend a hand to neighbours in need, this also allows for connection and dialogue.

WHEREAS, let this month remind us that these neighbourly acts can have a powerful impact on the well-being of our neighbours and community fostering a safe and welcoming atmosphere.

NOW THEREFORE, we, PJ Stasko, Mayor of the City of Camrose, and Cindy Trautman, Reeve of Camrose County, do hereby proclaim May, 2026 as Good Neighbour Month.
