ROOM 1204

Located outside the Border Paving Arena, this is a bright meeting room on the ground floor of the Recreation Centre.

This meeting room is equipped with seating and tables for up to 75 people but seats up to 50 comfortably. It is typically used for City of Camrose meetings, physiotherapy and is rented by community groups.

This versatile meeting room serves as the backdrop for high-profile gatherings and strategic planning sessions. This space has welcomed international visitors, event organizers, and community leaders during major tournaments and special events.

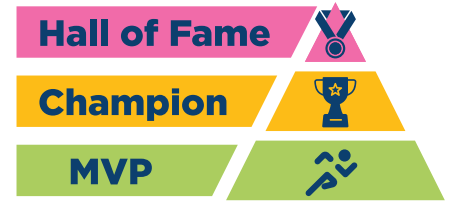

Equipped with modern amenities and designed for comfort and professionalism, the meeting room is where important decisions are made and partnerships are forged—making it an integral part of the Centre's reputation as a world-class destination.
