LAP POOL

The 25-metre lap pool has eight lanes, a diving board, and eight diving blocks for competitions. It's used for aqua exercise classes, public swimming, swim club practices, and training for the Tsunami's Lifesaving Sport Club. This is a versatile pool that serves many user groups.

HOT TUB

The Mayer Aquatic Centre features an accessible in-ground hot tub that offers a warm, relaxing spot to unwind. The hot tub is centrally located in the facility between the lap pool and leisure pool.

The hot tub comfortably fits about 25 patrons at a time.

Renovated in 2020, you could be the first to name these spaces!

LEISURE POOL

The leisure pool is made up of three main sections.

The lazy river is enjoyed by recreational users and people exercising moving both with and against the current.

The shallow area has a zero step ramp and play structure for kids and tots.

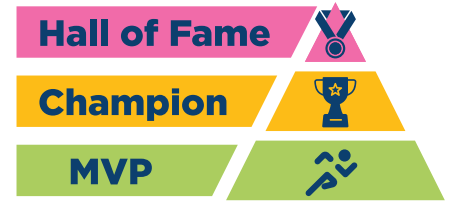

There is a shallow pool area that is be used for aqua exercise, warm ups before competitions, and swim lessons.
